

Radical Reference Annual Meeting and Dinner

Saturday, June 24th 6:30-8:30pm

Iron Rail Cooperative Bookstore and Library
511 Marigny St., New Orleans, LA

Join us to find out more about Radical Reference, to meet fellow activist librarians, and to hear more about the work and experiences of the Iron Rail, an independent radical library thriving in the wake of Katrina.

Radical Reference's Guide to Radical ALA:

<http://radicalreference.info/ALA/annual2006>

Radical Reference is a collective of volunteer library workers who believe in social justice and equality. We support activist communities, progressive organizations, and independent journalists by providing professional research support, education and access to information. We work in a collaborative virtual setting and are dedicated to information activism to foster a more egalitarian society.

Iron Rail is a non-profit reading room, lending library, and bookshop. Covering issues such as politics, race, the environment, feminism, anarchism, socialism, gay and lesbian studies, social theory, and history, fiction, non-fiction, and creative non-fiction. A news-stand. A home for zines and other self-published tracts and manifestos. It's a comfortable, welcoming, non-institutional space where we can learn together and talk to each other.

Iron Rail is looking for volunteers both during and after ALA.
